Here's what you can expect in this 2 or 3-hour experience:

- Escape room
- Self-reflection exercise: characteristics of high-performing teams

- Group discussion on key takeaways and applications for your ongoing teamwork
- Introduction to relevant research from psychology to help improve team performance

"This experience was incredibly valuable. We appreciated the way the workshop highlighted dynamics and behaviours in the escape room that can be directly related back to our business. The opportunities that we brought to the surface as a group, through Jay's facilitation, are being implemented right now to improve our culture and our success as a team. We highly recommend this experience to other organizations."
